Monday – Friday

We seem to live in an age of entitlement.

It is a time when many of us hold to the maxim that ‘we are owed our just desserts’ – preferably with strawberries and piped cream on top! A new car every few years. Can’t be wasting time uncomfortably in the traffic.

A holiday and then another to an ever more exotic location.

We owe it to ourselves. A flash, well-located house.

After all we work hard and long. A big Friday night on the town. After all it was a tough week. Gym membership to keep us in shape. New fashionwear to add to already bulging wardrobes. Perfectly justifiable for those who must hold their own in a world where image takes us places.

A lucrative sponsorship - just reward for our achievements.

We live as if life is a wide open door beckoning us on and on to the next reward, the next ‘wow’ experience, the next creature comfort. It’s as if we would be living a lesser life if we were to resist the lure of the wide open door of entitlement.

The Jesus of today’s Gospel warns us that we are in for a shock if we seek to continually live life from such a perspective. When we least expect it, the door to genuine fulfilment may suddenly seem inaccessible to us. Jesus is the keeper of that door and the entitled “will be last” and “the last will be first”. The way through the door requires strength and involves challenge. It requires a life lived with humility and for others. It requires a heart that yearns, rather than an ego that expects. In the words of Joyce Rupp: “Opener of hearts, you are the true guide of my life helping me unlock every door that leads to you. As I turn to you with trust and faith, I open the door of my heart to you.” A little bit tough.

At times uncomfortable. Not always easy. The only way.

Parliament is due to vote on the decriminalisation of Abortion very shortly. The proposal is to make abortion available up until the due date. If you wish to object to this proposal, you are asked to write a letter to your local member of Parliament objecting to this Bill..... Pope Francis: "so great is the value of human life, and so inalienable the right to life of an innocent child growing in the mother's womb, that no alleged right to one's own body can justify a decision to terminate that life, which is an end in itself and which can never be considered the 'property of another human being'".

Stewardship -

'For behold, some are last who will be first and some are first who will be last.' Luke 13:30

Our standards in our society are so different from God's standards.

We often rate or rank people by what they have, how powerful they are, or how successful they are. Jesus reminds us that God will not judge us by the same earthly standards.
