THE MAN WHO NEVER NOTICED

There is something chilling about today's parable of The Man Who Never Noticed. As you may recall, the rich guy in Jesus' parable is so preoccupied, so self-absorbed, with his life of conspicuous consumption that he fails to notice the starving, destitute guy outside his own front door. By way of alerting us to just how bad things are for Lazarus (the starving guy) Jesus tells us that Lazarus is so far gone, so weak, he cannot stop the street dogs licking his open sores. Disgusting, we think, and so it is. If Jesus' parable has you feeling uncomfortable, join the club. Discomfort might have something to do with one or two life choices we are currently making. . .

Returning to the rich man, lacking even a beginner's grasp of the interdependence of human beings, empathy for another person is quite beyond him. So he goes on living the illusion of self-sufficiency. He kids himself that he doesn't need anyone, well, not anyone who lives outside his own narrow world. And he most certainly doesn't need God. This tragic misreading of what matters is his undoing. Put another way, he is completely out of touch with Love (God), with himself and the wider world.

In contrast to that dead end thinking, Jesus, right now, is inviting us to live our lives as a not-to-be-missed opportunity to find our deepest, truest selves. Paradoxically, we do this by loving and serving God in each other. This is a non-negotiable of the Spiritual life. Scripture encourages us to live in Love, to be formed by Love, in short to be one with God, ourselves and each other. This Truth, the Big True, is at the heart of how we think and pray and act. Somewhere along the line, Compassion becomes the way we are in the world. And so it is, we will end up fulfilling our ultimate destiny—to live Life forever with God.

SOCIAL JUSTICE SUNDAY - September 25th

We celebrate Social Justice Sunday this weekend. This year, the Australian Bishops' Social Justice Statement is titled: 'A Place at the Table: Social justice in an ageing society'.

The Statement celebrates the value and dignity of older people in Australian life. It challenges us to recognise their significant contribution to society and emphasises that this contribution should not be valued in mere economic terms. The Statement calls for justice for those who are most vulnerable and warns about a view of older people as burdensome or dispensable.

Next Sunday's Readings:

Scripture Study Group

Ever wanted to know more about the Bible?

Here is your opportunity to have an appreciation of how the Bible can be applied to daily life. As a Deanery initiative, a Scripture Study Group is being held at St Thomas parish, Camp Hill. This will give you an opportunity for a stronger understanding of the connections between faith and life and a deeper, more personal relationship with God. No prior Bible Study or training is required and all are welcome.

“Introduction to the Bible” will run over 7 weeks commencing 3rd October.

“Acts of the Apostles” will run over 10 weeks commencing 27th September.

Local Safeguarding Representative

Safeguarding our children and vulnerable adults within our community requires the responsibility of all of us.

I am very pleased to announce John Godwin has agreed to be our Local Safeguarding Representative for Mount Carmel community.

John will be available to anyone within the community who wishes to speak with him about this important area of our community's life.

John has my confidence to assist the community in bringing forward to the attention of those within the Archdiocese any concern of safeguarding children and vulnerable adults that may impact any member of the Mount Carmel community, especially when the individual concerned feels unable to bring the matter to the appropriate authorities.

In order for John to maintain a position of neutrality he has submitted his resignation from the Parish Pastoral Council effective immediately.

I thank John on your behalf for accepting this important role and for his two years of very generous service on the Council.

Fr. Wayne
